BUILDERS CHAIRMEN

Barney Morris and Edward Zuckerman of the Grandview Building Co. will be chairman and associate chairman of the Builders Division for the 1957 United Jewish Welfare Fund campaign, it was announced by George Familian, Construction Section chairman.

Morris and Zuckerman are developers of Hollypark in the Torrance-Gardena area, and of Grandview-Palos Verdes in the Palos Verdes Estates.

The builders raised some $379,000 last year, which represented about half the Construction Section total, and are aiming for an estimated half million dollars in this year's drive.

With preliminary meetings already held, Morris and Zuckerman have called a major session for their group for 4 p.m. Thursday, April 4, at their offices, 470 S. Beverly dr., Beverly Hills.

The Welfare Fund this year is aiming for a double goal; to rescue 100,000 Jewish refugees from Arab and Eastern European countries, and to provide for normal local, national and overseas agency needs.
